Spacious townhouse adjoining parkland!

This single level two-bedroom townhouse is located at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac backing onto open parkland within walking distance of the Gungahlin town centre.

The property features generously proportioned open plan living areas, study nook, large bedrooms with built in cupboards and internal access from the garage.

There is a private north facing courtyard garden, additional off street carparking and reverse cycle electric heating and cooling making this a very comfortable property year-round.
