All the charm of a "Playoust" design nestled on a 1,000sqm+ block!

This well designed four bedroom ensuite home was designed by John Playoust, a popular architect/builder in Canberra in the 1970's-80's. Over the years the home has been modernised to offer a move in friendly family home in a picturesque garden setting.

There is a great balance between formal and informal living space with a large deck opening out from the meals area overlooking the manicured gardens. The family room opens out to a covered deck/pergola that works beautifully with the café blinds to act as a sunroom.

One of the highlights of the home is the spacious renovated kitchen with an abundance of cupboards and corian benchtops. The formal entrance hall has a coat cupboard and an extra t
